Page	Text
1	Alli Ugruk was born late in April on the ice near Kotzebue. He was a very big baby. His mother thought he was the most beautiful baby in the world.
2	Alli couldn't swim when he was born. He had to learn. His mother taught him to swim. She also taught him to fish.
3	Alli grew fast. He didn't get any longer. He just got fatter. Alli should have been very happy. But he wasn't.
4	Alli was always cold. He was cold all day long. He was cold all night long. He never got warm.
5	Alli shivered and shook. He sneezed and his nose dripped. He was so cold that he turned blue. Alli was very unhappy.
6	Alli's friends called to him. They said, "Come and swim with us." Alli didn't want to. "Come and catch fish with us." Alli didn't want to. He just sat on his chunk of ice and shivered.
7	"Come and catch crabs with us." "No," said Alli. "I'm too cold." "Come and hunt for clams with us." "No," said Alli. "I'm too cold." And so he sat and sneezed and sniffled and shivered. He was very unhappy.

8 Alli heard about Hawaii.
He dreamed of the warm land.
There was no ice.
The water was warm.
The palm trees grew by the ocean.

9 Alli wanted to go there.
He wanted to go to Hawaii.
He wanted to be warm all day long.
He wanted to be warm all night long.
He was very tired of sniffling and sneezing and shivering.

10 Alli talked to his mother.
"I want to go to Hawaii. I want to be warm."
His mother said, "Hawaii is far away. No ugruk has ever been there."
"Then I will be the first ugruk to go there," said Alli.

11 "How will you get to Hawaii?" said Alli's mother.
"I will go by boat."
"You have no boat," said his mother.
"I will make one," said Alli.

12

13 And that is just what he did.
He built his boat out of ice.

14 "Goodbye, Alli," called his friends.
"Goodbye, Alli," said his mother.
"Be careful, Alli. Have fun, Alli."
Everyone waved and called until Alli was out of sight.

15 Alli was alone.
He was in the middle of the ocean.
The sky was above him.
The water was beneath him.
The little boat traveled on and on.

16 Alli was going south.
The air got warmer and warmer.
The water got warmer and warmer.
The boat got smaller and smaller.

17 Hawaii was in sight.
The little boat was all melted.
Alli swam to the shore.
Alli had reached Hawaii.

18 Alli lay down under a coconut tree.
He did not sniffle or sneeze or shiver.
Alli was warm.
He was very, very happy.

19 The sun rose higher in the sky.
Alli got warmer and warmer.
Then Alli got hot.
He got hotter and hotter.

20 Alli lay under the coconut tree.
The sun hurt his eyes.
The air was too hot to breathe.
Alli was very, very unhappy.
Alli cried.

21 Alli thought about home.
He thought about the lovely ice.
He thought about the cold blue water.
He thought about the crabs and the clams and the shrimps.
Alli wanted to go home.

22 Alli built another boat.
He built it out of a log.
He pushed the boat out into the water.
Alli started home.

23 Alli was going north.
The air got colder and colder.
The water got colder and colder.
Alli got happier and happier.

24 Alli came to the ice.
Home at last!
Alli jumped into the water.
It was cold.
He was very, very happy.

25 Alli saw his mother.
"Here I am, Mother. I'm back!"
Alli saw his friends.
"I'm back! I'm back! I'll never leave again."

26 Alli said, "Let's go swimming."
He said, "Let's look for crabs."
Alli played in the water.
He played on the ice.

27 Alli wasn't cold.
He didn't sniffle and he didn't sneeze and he didn't shiver.

He forgot how unhappy he had been.
Now he was the happiest ugruk in Alaska.

28 Alli learned a wonderful thing.
He learned that home is the best place in the world.

29 Alli lived happily forever after.
He lived on the ice near Kotzebue.
He lived in the very best place in the whole world.

30 The end.
